

Interpreter on working student basis searched

Siegen, 16. Mai 2021

For the next possible date, we're looking for an interpreter from within the student body of the University of Siegen. Your task is, to translate any contributions during the student parliament meetings, right after the speech acts are finished. The translation shall be done from English to German and from German to English and will be compensated with 30€/ hour. Your working hours are connected to the student parliament meetings, which takes place at maximum once per week between Tuesday and Thursday, from 6 pm to 1:15 am at maximum.

What we are expecting:

- Language level C1 or above (e.g., raised bilingually) in both English and German
- Be ready to get familiar with the structures within the student body and the respective vocabulary
- Willingness to work in the evenings

Please send your application, consisting of motivational letter and CV, to finanzen@asta.uni-siegen.de until the 23rd of May 2021.

The interviews will be held in English and German.